

Psychology comes from the Latin for the study of the _____.

Today psychology can be called the science of _____ and _____.

If you're thinking of psychology, you're probably picturing _____.

Psychology is just a big old, integrated _____.

Around the time of Freud, there were different schools of thought known as _____,
_____, and _____.

Scientific psychology began in _____, and was pioneered by _____.

Structuralism was founded by _____ and focused on _____.

Functionalism was founded by _____ and focused on _____.

Freud stuff! Define the following...

Free association –

Psychoanalysis –

Subconscious –

What did Freud's theories do for the mentally ill?

Behaviorism is ...

Key thinkers were...

Freud's descendants were called _____.

The human brain is...